CLASS WILL

We, the members of the Class of 1939, being of sound and disposing mind and memory, and about to pass out of existence, hereby declare, publish and expose this to be our last Will and Testament, drawn up this 2nd day of June in the year of our Lord, 1939, as witnessed by these witnesses:

We, the Class of 1939, leave our ability to cooperate with our sponsors and the entire school, to the Class of 1941, our dignity to the Class of 1940 and our choice of seats in the Assembly to the Class of 1942.

We, the Class of 1939, do hereby will and bequeath the following items to said persons. To the two Martins, Joe D. leaves his athletic ability. He thinks these two boys will take care of it and not treat it rough.

Ross F. leaves his musical ability to Eugene M., Laverne H., Francis A., and Donald J.

Norma B. leaves her ability to strut to Gladys Hacker and Iolyne Wertz.

Bob H. leaves his story telling ability to Stan L. and Harvey H. To Hal M. and Ray S.

Glenn M. leaves his ability of good driving. Marian P. leaves her giggle to Marguerite K. and Gertrude P.

Delbert M. leaves his managerial ability to both Junior M. and Ray O.

Mary Jane L. leaves her red hair to Leonard M.

Eleanor Sm. leaves her blue-gray eyes to Isle Mae U.

June Ralph, the smart girl of the Senior class, leaves her intelligence to two Junior girls. Betty K. and Shirley H. are to receive this honor.

Adeline B., that little French girl, leaves her art of flirting to Wanda D. We hope it won't be wasted.

Elizabeth S., our little quiet girl, leaves her studious manner to a couple of nice quiet girls, Donna L. and Juanita L.

Frances K. leaves her smile to someone she feels will make proper use of it, Frances B. and Edward K.

Tony T. leaves his long shot ability to Leon S. and Freddy B.

Clarence S., that dark-haired Romeo, leaves his long stride to Lloyd M.

Irene T. leaves her arguing ability to Alpha E. and Arlene L.

Paul L. leaves his sound effects and harmonica playing to his brother Albert and Charles V.

Clyde (Gable) Mulligan leaves his ability to get along with woman to Elmer S. and Stanley L.

Bob K. leaves his stoop shoulders to Pauline J. and Betty Jane S.

Devon Cart leaves his ability to get along with people to Leota B.

To the entire school, the Class of 1939 leaves the wish that a new high school will soon be erected on a location satisfactory to all.

To the members of the Faculty and to those not mentioned, we leave our deepest affections and sincere appreciation of the help they haws so kindly given us.

Maker if Will:

Robert Ryan

President—Norms Bleau

Secretary--Elisabeth Starasinich

PROPHECY

Knowing that a prophet is not without fame save in his own country, we have ventured to look into the magic crystal, and view our famous Senior Class ten years hence:

Norma Bleau, our famous class president, was the editor-in-chief of that notorious American monthly "Uncommon Sense."

Adeline Boudreau, who was very reluctant about appearing in the crystal, at last came into view with a dazzling smile, as befitted New York's most wanted photographer's model.

Devon Cart, the most widely known of all the celebrities, was doing all right for himself as author of detective stories.

Joe Dominick, our famous basketball captain, and hero of all the girls, was a nationally known professional football player.

Rose Flora, after deciding that the girls were "bunk," had become America's best known aviator. He says his ambition is "to make the wives of all businessmen more air-minded."

Frances Klonosky, trying hard to forget her Bradley background, was a successful nurse at Bellevue hospital, with a spicy romance on the sideline.

Robert Kolwelter, the "Calamity Jane" of our class, was making a mint of money as professional killjoy in the movies.

Paul Legris, notorious in school for his harmonica playing, was the well-liked band instructor at the University of Chicago. He had completely reorganized the band, so that the only members were blonde girls.

Mary Jane Lucas, too shy and quiet to make herself famous, was a very contented homemaker in a suburban district.

Delbert McCammon, our sports manager of former years, was the crack sports writer for the New York Times. And was he picking winners.

Clyde Mulligan, who was once fired with ambition, was still sitting around waiting for opportunity to knock.

Glenn Mulligan had found the one occupation to his liking, and was the manager of a ritzy New York night club.

Marian Prairie, our champion giggler, had grown very serious, as befitted a veteran Latin teacher.

Robert Ryan, unable to hold a position elsewhere due to his incurable talk, was made happy with the position of radio announcer.

Eleanor Smith, formerly a dissatisfied typist, had crashed Hollywood, and was now Number One glamour girl in the movies.

Elizabeth Starasinich, our secretary and all around good sport, was really carrying her audiences with her world-famous lectures on "How to Win Friends and Influence People."

Clarence Stoltz, but lately discovering his incompatibility with American life, had joined an exploring party to the heart of Africa and had long since been made drummer-in-chief of the pygmies.

Tony Toliuszis, our "old faithful," had allowed his scientific mind to run riot in the biological world, and was now one of our foremost entomologists.

Irene Troutman, who had always made known her ability to censure, was a topnotcher as a radio critic.

June Ralph, getting so enraptured with knitting her scarf, decided to go into the business of designing very smart knitted clothing for women.

And the teachers? Poor dears, they had all grown hoary-headed trying to figure out exactly what made them decide to be teachers.

Len Martin's Long Shot Beats Coal City, 34-32; Joliet Defeated, 24-22

Joint March 11—(R-S Special)—Bradley's 30th game was a hard fought affair. Illinois has not won in four years. Bradley's victory here is the first since the school was founded in 1887. The game was played at 8 o'clock at the Joliet school. The crowd was estimated at 1,000. The game was a close one, with Bradley leading 24-22 at the end of the first half. In the second half, Bradley's defense was superb, holding Coal City to 8 points. The final score was 34-32. Len Martin was the hero, scoring 12 points. Joliet's best player, Tommie Lee, scored 10 points. The game was a real test for both teams, and Bradley's victory is a major step toward the state championship.

Only one team in the nation, the 1938 team of the University of Illinois, has won the national championship. The 1938 team was coached by Dr. James Naismith, the inventor of basketball. The 1938 team won the championship by defeating the University of California in the final game. The 1938 team's record was 28-1. The 1938 team's coach, Dr. Naismith, was the first to coach a team to win the national championship. The 1938 team's victory was a major achievement for the sport of basketball.

Other 100 are called, but only 18 are invited to battle for the Illinois state championship. The 18 teams are from Kankakee county. Bradley was named the county champion last year. The county championship is a major step toward the state championship. The 18 teams will play a round-robin tournament. The top two teams will advance to the state championship. Bradley's victory in the county championship is a major achievement for the school.

ALUMNI

Upon interviewing the Senior Class of 1938, we find the occupations followed by each at the present time.

First of course, we will mention the positions of the fairer sex.

Margery Heinze has put her knowledge to great use since she is employed in the Bradley Factory office.

Bernice Toliuszis is continuing her knowledge of Commerce and is studying at Gallaghers. She also works part time at Kresges.

Doris Hasemeyer, who was formerly employed at the Bear Brand Hosiery Company, is home at the present time.

At the Roland Beauty School, we find Nellie McCleary preparing herself for a future in Beauty Culture.

Among the Romeos, we find Gene Mayotte in the coal business and working up quite a trade.

Frank Coyer is living in Champaign and plans to go to the University of Illinois next fall.

Leonard DeLonais works in Cromwell's Modern Cleaners.

Frank Lustig is resting his mind to enter college in the fall.

Marvin Lambert is working as a gas station attendant.

Ray Janssen and Harold Nielsen, who enjoy the wide open spaces, are sticking to farming.

Robert Menard is working at the K.K.K. Foundry.

Kenny Atkins is at home but has been working in Johnson's Drug Store.

Last of all is Fred Meyers who is employed at Bobbitt's with a white-collared job.

CLASS HISTORY

In September 1935, sixty-nine green but hopeful young people entered Bradley High carrying a "Man of the World" air that immediately signaled them out as "Greenhorns." Of these sixty-nine, fourteen of the boys went out for football and Joe D., Frank S., Stanley L., Rhoynal R., came through with major awards while Bernard H. received a minor.

Six Freshmen entered the Band and ten of our girls joined the Glee Club.

The officers for the year were as follows: President--Anthony T.; Vice-President--Frank S.; Secretary-Treasurer--Doreene Shear.

On December 17, we gave our first party. After that we quieted down and under the sponsorship of Miss Baker and Miss Brock, our course was turned to final examinations and summer vacation.

September 1936—Forty-seven of the original sixty-nine members returned to school. There were also three new members, William B., Bernice C. and Thomas L.

The officers for the year were: President—Juliana W.; Vice--President--Delbert M.; Secretary-Treasurer--Doreene Shear.

Six of the Sophomores were chosen on the Bradleyan Staff, one girl entered Glee Club and seven were members of the Band. Awards in football went to Clarence S., Thomas D., Clyde M. and Joe D. Track majors were awarded to Joe D. and Clyde M. and a minor was earned by T. Toliuszis.

Miss Baker and Miss Brock again did their good work and the Sophomores finally finished their second year and were on their way to being "Upperclassmen."

1937--UPPERCLASSMEN. Life begins.

Miss Brock and Miss Arends, the new Commercial teacher, were sponsors.

Class officers during our Junior year were: President--Clyde M; Vice-President--Joe D.; Secretary--Delbert M.; Treasurer--Clarence S.

The class now consisted of twenty-one members with one new member, William D. Five Juniors were placed on the Bradleyan Staff and four girls joined the Glee Club.

Things began to roll when in October the Juniors joined the Seniors in a class party that went over with a bang. The Juniors continued in the lime-light from then on, their goal being the Prom. Bradley pennants were sold, a St. Pat's dance was given, we sponsored a Spring Carnival, candy and pop were sold at all the B.B. games and we finally gathered together enough money for the Prom.

The final event of the year was the Junior-Senior Prom. This was probably the most outstanding of them all. On May 7, the Juniors gathered at the Highland Country Club with the Seniors and Faculty as their guests and once again the Juniors triumphed.

At last our goal has been achieved. We are finally on the top row. Of the sixty-nine that began, only seventeen have survived. Devon C. from Momenca, Mary Jane L. from Danville and Irene T. of Kankakee increased the number to twenty.

Again Miss Arends and Miss Brock led us through the joys and sorrows of our Senior year. Class officers were: President--Norma B.; Vice-President-Clarence S.; Secretary--Elizabeth S.; Treasurer--Robert R.

November 10 of this year the Seniors gave a public card and Bunco party and in December, a sale of Christmas cards took place. Early in the second semester furious work began on the Annual for 1938-39.

In Athletics, major football letters were received by Joe D., Clyde M., Clarence S. and Glenn M. Robert R. received a minor. Basketball majors were awarded to Joe D. and Tony T. Captain Joe D. was named as honorary guard on the State team.

On June 2, the Seniors convened in the High School Gymnasium to give their final exercises. Their goal has been achieved only to set them on the path of life. Four years of complete success prove the motto the Seniors have chosen--
